

GRUMP Returns to a New Location

Crystal City Underground to host alternative holiday arts & crafts show

The fifth GRUMP Holiday Arts & Crafts Show, which was in the past hosted at Artisphere, is moving to the Crystal City Underground in Arlington, VA, on Saturday, December 17, 2016 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. This year, GRUMP will feature 55 local artists and makers at 1750 Crystal Drive in the Shops at Crystal City. Feel good shopping local, learn to knit in our knitting lounge, AND meet a Yeti! The first 250 shoppers will get a free GRUMP tote bag.

What kind of stuff can you buy at GRUMP? Local vendors will be selling everything from handmade soap to letterpress cards to locally designed & printed t-shirts to graphic novels. You can check out all of the vendors online at: <http://ilovegrump.com/grump-vendors/> It is like shopping Etsy.com in real life! An added bonus is meeting the people who make the things that you buy, hearing their stories and getting inspired.

The show is conveniently located at the Crystal City Metro in the Crystal City Underground.

GRUMP is the brainchild of Tina Seamonster and Beth Baldwin, two local independent designers who have produced GRUMP since 2010. Our event is produced in partnership with Crystal City BID and Vornado with promotional consideration from Arlington Arts.
